

Audit & Risk Committee Charter

Version 1.0

January 2020

1. Introduction

- 1.1 The audit and risk committee is a committee of the board of directors of Electro Optic Systems Holdings Limited ACN 092 708 364 (Company and, together with its controlled entities, the Group) (Audit and Risk Committee).
- 1.2 The board of directors of the Company (Board) has established the Audit and Risk Committee under the Company's constitution.
- 1.3 This charter sets out the scope of the Audit and Risk Committee's responsibilities in relation to the Company and the Group.

2. Objectives

The objectives of the Audit and Risk Committee are to:

- (a) assist the Board to achieve its governance objectives in relation to:
 - (i) financial reporting;
 - (ii) the application of accounting policies;
 - (iii) business policies and practices;
 - (iv) legal and regulatory compliance; and
 - (v) internal control and risk management systems;
- (b) maintain and improve the quality, credibility and objectivity of the financial accountability process (including financial reporting on a consolidated basis);
- (c) promote a culture of compliance across the Group;
- (d) provide a forum for communication between the Board and the Company's management (Management) in relation to audit, risk and compliance matters affecting the Group;
- (e) ensure effective internal audit (if any) and external audit functions and communication between the Board and the internal auditor (if any) and external auditor; and
- (f) review and comment on Management's plans for managing the material financial and reporting risks faced by the Group.

3. Audit and Risk Committee composition

- 3.1 The Audit and Risk Committee should (and, if the Company is included in the S&P ASX 300 Index, must) comprise:
 - (a) at least three directors;
 - (b) all non-executive directors; and
 - (c) a majority of independent directors.
- 3.2 The Audit and Risk Committee will appoint its chairperson. The chairperson should be an appropriately qualified independent director and must not be the chairperson of the Board.
- 3.3 The Audit and Risk Committee will appoint a secretary.

- 3.4 The Audit and Risk Committee must be of sufficient size, independence and technical expertise to effectively discharge its mandate.
- 3.5 Each member of the Audit and Risk Committee must be able to read and understand financial statements and at least one member must be a qualified accountant or other financial professional with appropriate experience of financial and accounting matters.
- 3.6 Each member of the Audit and Risk Committee should have an understanding of the industry in which the Group operates.
- 3.7 The Board will decide appointments, rotations and resignations within the Audit and Risk Committee having regard to the ASX Listing Rules, the ASX Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations (as amended from time to time) and the general law applicable to such matters.
- 3.8 A member of the Audit and Risk Committee may act by their alternate.

4. External financial reporting

The responsibilities of the Audit and Risk Committee are:

- (a) engaging in the proactive oversight of, and assessing the adequacy of, the Company's financial reporting and disclosure processes and financial controls, overseeing and reviewing the outputs of that process and making recommendations to the Board in relation to those matters;
- (b) assessing the appropriateness and application of the Group's accounting policies and principles and any changes to them, so that they accord with the applicable financial reporting framework;
- (c) obtaining an independent judgment from the external auditor about:
 - (i) the acceptability and appropriateness of accounting policies and principles put forward by Management; and
 - (ii) the clarity of current or proposed financial disclosure practices as put forward by Management;
- (d) assessing information from the external auditor that may affect the quality of the Company's financial reports;
- (e) reviewing all half-yearly and annual financial reports with Management, advisers and the external auditors (as appropriate) prior to filing with the ASX and recommending the applicable accounts' adoption by the Board if those financial reports reflect the understanding of the members of the Audit and Risk Committee of, and otherwise provide a true and fair view of, the financial position and performance of the Group;
- (f) discussing any draft audit opinion letter and Management letter with the external auditors before it is finalised;
- (g) assessing the appropriateness of any significant accounting estimates, judgments or choices in the financial reports of the Company;
- (h) reviewing and approving as required, documents and reports to regulators;
- (i) following up on any matter raised by the Board regarding financial reports, audit opinions and Management letters;

- (j) establishing procedures for the receipt, retention and treatment of complaints received by the Company regarding accounting, internal accounting controls and auditing matters, and procedures for the confidential, anonymous submission of concerns by employees regarding accounting and auditing matters;
- (k) reviewing Management processes supporting external reporting, and any complaints or concerns raised internally regarding financial or accounting processes and practices;
- (l) ensuring that procedures are in place which are designed to verify the existence and effectiveness of accounting and financial systems and other systems of internal control which relate to financial risk management; and
- (m) any other responsibilities as determined by the Audit and Risk Committee or the directors from time to time, and making recommendations to the Board in respect of these matters.

5. Risk management and internal control

The responsibilities of the Audit and Risk Committee are:

Risk management and internal compliance and control systems

- (a) overseeing the establishment and implementation of risk management and internal compliance and control systems and ensuring that there is a mechanism for assessing the ongoing efficiency and effectiveness of those systems;
- (b) reviewing (at least annually) and approving policies and procedures on risk oversight and management to establish an effective and efficient system for:
 - (i) identifying, assessing, monitoring and managing risk; and
 - (ii) disclosing any material change to the Group's risk profile;
- (c) reviewing any material incident involving fraud or a breakdown of the Group's risk controls and considering the implications for the Group of such incidents;
- (d) receiving reports from Management concerning the Group's material risks and the risk controls and mitigation measures that Management has put in place, in order to assess the internal processes for determining, monitoring and managing these risks and to monitor the risk profile of the Group;
- (e) if the Group has established an internal audit function:
 - (i) appointing or removing the head of internal audit;
 - (ii) determining the scope and adequacy of the internal audit work plan;
 - (iii) receiving reports from internal audit on its reviews of the adequacy of the Group's processes for managing risk; and
 - (iv) ensuring the independence, objectivity and performance of the internal audit function;

Disclosure and financial reporting

- (f) ensuring that Management establishes a comprehensive process to capture all financial information that must be disclosed to ASX;
- (g) reviewing the Group's financial risk management procedures to ensure that the Group

complies with its legal obligations, including to assist the Chief Executive Officer or Chief Financial Officer engaged by the Company to provide the declarations in relation to each of the Group's financial reports required by Recommendation 4.2 of the 4th edition of the ASX Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations; and

Other responsibilities

- (h) any other responsibilities as determined by the Audit and Risk Committee or the directors from time to time, and making recommendations to the Board in respect of the above matters.

6. External audit

The responsibilities of the Audit and Risk Committee are, among other things:

- (a) approving the terms of engagement with the external auditor at the beginning of each financial year;
- (b) regularly reviewing with the external auditor:
 - (i) the scope of, plan for and adequacy of the external audit;
 - (ii) identified risk areas; and
 - (iii) any other agreed procedures;
- (c) approving policies and procedures for appointing or removing an external auditor and for external audit engagement partner rotation;
- (d) recommending to the Board for approval, the appointment, reappointment or removal of an external auditor;
- (e) approving the remuneration of the external auditor;
- (f) regularly reviewing the performance, effectiveness and independence of the external auditor, including annual receipt of an independence report from the external auditor;
- (g) approving the types of non-audit services that the external auditor may provide without impairing or appearing to impair the external auditor's independence;
- (h) meeting periodically with the external auditor and inviting them to attend Audit and Risk Committee meetings to:
 - (i) review their plans for carrying out internal control reviews; and
 - (ii) consider any comments made in the external auditor's letter, and in particular, any comments about material weaknesses in internal controls and Management's response to those matters;
- (i) reviewing all representation letters signed by Management and assessing the management processes which support external reporting;
- (j) considering significant matters raised during the audit process and receiving and reviewing the reports of the external auditor;
- (k) ensuring that the external auditor attends the annual general meeting of the Company and is available to answer questions from shareholders of the Company relevant to the audit; and

- (l) any other responsibilities as determined by the Audit and Risk Committee or the directors from time to time.

7. Other responsibilities

The responsibilities of the Audit and Risk Committee are:

- (a) assessing and recommending to the Board for adoption the scope, cover and cost of insurance, including insurance relating to directors and officers' liability, company reimbursement and professional indemnity;
- (b) if it considers appropriate, investigating any complaint or allegation made to it;
- (c) reviewing and/or evaluating:
 - (i) the effectiveness of the Company's risk management and internal control processes;
 - (ii) the Group's risk management plan framework at least annually, and ensuring that the Company discloses in relation to each reporting period whether such a review has taken place, as well as any insights gained and any changes made to the risk management framework as a result;
- (d) verifying the information included in the Company's annual directors' report and other corporate reports to ensure that the information contained in such reports is, in the reasonable opinion of the Audit and Risk Committee, accurate, balanced and understandable and provides investors with appropriate information to make informed investment decisions;
- (e) if the Company has an internal audit function, how the function is structured and what role it performs, or if it does not have an internal audit function, that fact and the process that it employs for evaluating and continually improving the effectiveness of its risk management and internal control processes;
- (f) ensuring that the Company discloses whether, and if so how, it has regard to, and manages, economic, environmental (including climate change) and social sustainability risks;
- (g) reviewing and monitoring any related party transaction and recommending its approval; and
- (h) any other responsibilities as determined by the Audit and Risk Committee or the directors from time to time.

8. Audit and Risk Committee meetings

- 8.1 The Audit and Risk Committee will meet as often as it considers necessary and as a minimum must meet every six months to review the half yearly results to 30 June each year and the full year results for the year ended 31 December each year.
- 8.2 A quorum for an Audit and Risk Committee meeting is two Audit and Risk Committee members.
- 8.3 The Audit and Risk Committee will review the independence of all members at each Audit and Risk Committee meeting.

- 8.4 Audit and Risk Committee meetings may be held by any technological means allowing its members to participate in discussions even if all of them are not physically in the same place. A member who is not physically present but participating by technological means is taken to be present.
- 8.5 The Audit and Risk Committee may invite other persons it regards appropriate to attend and contribute to Audit and Risk Committee meetings.
- 8.6 The Audit and Risk Committee must disclose at the end of each reporting period the number of times that it met during the period and the individual attendances of its members at those meetings.

9. Minutes of Audit and Risk Committee meetings

- 9.1 The Audit and Risk Committee must keep minutes of its meetings.
- 9.2 Minutes of each Audit and Risk Committee meeting must be included in the papers for the next full Board meeting after each meeting of the Audit and Risk Committee, except if there is a conflict of interest.
- 9.3 Minutes must be distributed to all Audit and Risk Committee members, after the Audit and Risk Committee chairperson has approved them.
- 9.4 The agenda and supporting papers are available to all directors upon request to the Audit and Risk Committee secretary, except if there is a conflict of interest.

10. Access to information and independent advice

- 10.1 The Audit and Risk Committee may seek any information or advice it considers necessary to fulfil its responsibilities.
- 10.2 The Audit and Risk Committee has access to:
- (a) Management, to seek explanations and information from them; and
 - (b) internal and external auditors to seek explanations and information, without Management being present.
- 10.3 The Audit and Risk Committee may seek professional advice from appropriate external advisers, at the Company's cost. The Audit and Risk Committee may meet with these external advisers without Management being present.

11. Review and changes to this charter

- 11.1 The Audit and Risk Committee will review this charter annually or as often as it considers necessary.
- 11.2 The Board may change this charter from time to time by resolution of the Board.

12. Approved and adopted

This charter was approved by the Board on 30th January 2020.
